I Want to Tell you a Story

An Anthology written by the Students from Sacred Heart Elementary School
Dear Families of Reading Clinic Participants,

The time we have spent together this semester at the UNI Reading Clinic has been nothing short of exciting and packed full of teaching and learning. The tutors, supervisors, and instructors have enjoyed working with your children. Their positive attitudes, eagerness to learn, and smiles made it a worthwhile adventure.

All of us at the Reading Clinic hope that you enjoy reading this book full of pieces from your children, the authors. The children have worked diligently on their piece throughout the semester and these are the writings that they have chosen to share with all of you. Their hard work and creativity is appreciated and is evident in the pieces included in this anthology.

Again, we thank you for the privilege of teaching your children. It has been a joy for all of us. Best wishes for your child’s continued progress in and pleasure with reading and writing.

_The more that you read, the more that you know. The more that you learn the more places you’ll go._

Globetrotters

I want to be a Globetrotter!
They run down the court dribbling the ball.
They shoot the ball.
They guard the other players.
They sit on the bench to take a break.
They get a drink when they are done.
Globetrotters are fun!
Angry Birds

The angry birds have an enemy. It is the green pig. The green pigs steal the eggs. The angry birds get angry when they steal the eggs. The angry birds do not have arm or legs. They cannot fly. The angry birds use a slingshot. A slingshot is made out of wood. It has a rubber band.

The angry birds launch themselves on the slingshot. They hit the pigs and their castle. Then the angry birds get there eggs back. The pigs try to eat the eggs but there are baby birds in the eggs. That’s why the angry birds don’t let the pigs eat the eggs. The end.

A Letter to My Friend

Dear ,

You are funny and you are fast. You are funny when you tick people. You can just tag people so fast. I wish you were my brother so we can do fun things. One of the fun things we would do is go to the playground. If you were my brother we will play IPad together also we would spy on your sister. Also we would have pizza with pepperoni on top. Also we would watch cartoons like Teen Titans Go.

Your friend,
What I Like To Do In The Winter

In the winter we had to stay indoors because it was cold out. My two oldest sisters were watching movies and then my mom and I came in. Then we all sat down in the living room. We went to the kitchen and brought snacks and sat and ate. And then I went to sleep and my medium sister too.
The Date That Is The Worst

Once upon a time, there was a princess. She lived in a shiny castle in the clouds. Then a prince came. He was tall and handsome. The prince said, “Lady, lady, let down your hair if you have long hair.” The princess said, “But I have short, curly hair. What should I do now?” “It is ok. Do you have any stairs?” “Yes, I should have thought of that. I will be right down.” “Ok, let’s go out on a date. Ok?” “Sure.” “Let’s go to the mall.” “Sounds good, but only if you’re buying.” “Ok!” Then they went to the mall. They went out for supper. They went shopping. Then they came back home. Then the princess said that was the worst date ever. Then they argued. Then the princess said, “You treated me like a kid.” The prince said, “I never want to see you again. That was the worst date ever.” Then they went away from each other. Prince asked princess if they can be friends again. Princes said, “Only if you don’t treat me like a child.” Prince said, “Ok.” Then they were friends again. Then they lived happily ever after.

The End

“Seriously!” said the princess to the prince. “I did not do anything!” said the prince.

My flower grows tall and tall and tall.
Growing Up

By: Dae Meh

What will you be when you grow up?

When I grow up I will be a teacher. You can be anything you want when you grow up. You can be a police, a teacher, a doctor, a registrar, a zoo keeper; anything you want to be is just fine. When I grow up I want to be a teacher. Because you can teach kids and you can do what teacher’s do with their students.

The soldiers came and the princesses told the soldiers that someone came and robbed them. The soldiers ran to every house. The soldiers found the man and the soldiers took the man to the princesses. Monster House

Once upon a time there was a haunted house that looked like a monster. One day, two kids came inside the house. There was a big slide inside of the house. The kids went down the slide and saw pizza at the bottom. They ate it. Then, a ghost jumped out and said, “Why did you eat my pizza?” Frankenstein tried to sneak by, but stepped on a whoopee cushion and scared the kids away. A witch flew out of the house on her broom and no one went back to the house ever again.
Halloween is October 31. I carved a pumpkin for Halloween. It was a smiley face. I’m going trick or treating with my grandpas, mom, and brothers. My costume is a panda. I’m going to wear a mask, tail, shirt, and pants. When I go to the houses I will say, “Trick or treat!” I hope I get a lot of candy!
UFOs Save Me

Once I was in space a meteor came right at Matt and Epic known as me. I am a smart astronaut. I like blue and my space suit is even blue. Matt likes the name Epic for me. Do you guy like those names for us? All of these people are in the spaceship, Mat, Epic, Alien, Meathead, Bookhead, Mr. Schminke, Dar We, Johnny Appleseed, Johnny Lwee See, and Ms. Kuesel. All the people took up all of the space in the rocket ship so I had to jump out of it. I got hit by a little flame and the flaming meteor hit me in the head 10 times! I passed out cold. Then aliens put infection in my body and slit open my chest and put two bullets in. I woke up from the infection. Then I fell to Earth and died.

How to Take Care of a Baby

You have to feed the baby and give the baby a bath.

You have to play with the baby.

You have to nurse the baby two times and put them to sleep for 20 minutes.

You have to hold the baby's head because you might give the baby too much milk.
If you give a dog a cupcake he will want a cherry to go with it. The cherry will remind him of a balloon. You have to blow up a balloon for him. Then he'll want ice cream. When he sees the beach he'll want to go there. When he finds a shell it will remind him of a sandcastle. When you build a sandcastle he will want a flag to go with it. He will want the shell to go on top of the sandcastle. Then he'll want to go home. When he is hungry he'll want a cupcake and cherry to go with it. He'll also put the cherry on top.
Godzilla

Godzilla the huge lizard came out of the water. Jets attacked him. Then everybody screamed and all the military attacked him. Then the Kraken got angry because it was noisy and started fighting him. We heard loud stomps and yells. Everyone ran as fast as they could to safety. The noise was getting louder and louder. Finally, the Kraken is dead. Everybody cheered for Godzilla. Then he went in the water to eat supper. The next day he came back. He couldn’t find his pajamas and that made him very angry. He started destroying buildings and houses. He breathed our fire. Then the tanks attacked him. He stepped on them. It was really, really, really annoying. Then his pajamas were found on the bridge. He came back in the water. He lived happily never after.
I like to go to the school playground and play. They have everything at the playground. I play with my friends at the playground. We have a lot of fun at the playground. I like to play in the sand. I like to play in the sand because the sand has rocks in it. When Sande plays in the sand, there are green germs in the sand. Sande goes to wash her hands from the germs. I like to play on the swings. The swing was fun to play on, but now the school took the swings away. The swings were fast and slow. Mack really loves the swing. Mack and Sande were playing in the sand and then they played on the swings. They have germs from playing in the sand. They want to play more, but it was night time. It was time to go home.

They will come back another time to play.
Lions

My favorite animal is a lion. There are two types of lions, African and Asiatic. Lionesses are girl lions. Lions can roar 5 miles away! Lions can jump 30 feet!

Lionesses do most of the hunting. Lions can eat 280 hamburgers! Predators are animals that hunt other animals for food. Enemies are lions, hyenas, humans, and leopards. A license is a permit to do something. Humans need a permit to hunt lions.

A lion lives in a savanna. A savanna has grassy land in Africa or Asia. A den is a shelter where lions live inside the savanna.

A pride is a group of lions. A pride has 15 lions in a group. A lion cub lives with their mother until they are two years old.

There is so much to learn about lions!
Hibernation

Polar bears live in the Artic. They hibernate in the winter because it is so cold outside. If they don't hibernate they will freeze to death. Baby polar bears are born in the winter. They stay in the tunnel until spring for protection.

Image 1:
The baby polar bear is waiting for his mom.

What They Eat

Polar bears eat fish, seal, walrus, and caribou because they like them. They eat in the spring to get energy after hibernating.

What They Look Like

Polar bears fur looks white. Their white fur helps them blend them in the snow. They are black underneath their fur. They can be 10 feet tall. A male can weigh 1,700 pounds.
All About Foxes

I will tell you about foxes.

Only artic foxes change color.

Foxes look like red, black, gray, and tan.

All foxes have sharp teeth.

"Inside the Story" Piece from Thanksgiving on Thursday.

If I were Jack I would see Governor Bradford and captain John Smith. Also, some Pilgrim’s. When I get trapped with a rope I can hear the dog barking. I will experience the Pilgrim’s town. I will think about the governor Bradford is brown, but the Pilgrims are not brown. If I were in a Pilgrim’s town I will look at them I see a forest and a house and they are celebrating thanksgiving. I hear a raccoon and a bird and squirrel also a owl and a wolf.
Santa’s Christmas

Once upon a time it was Christmas and Santa was tired. Santa’s elves were not making presents, so Santa was very mad. The elves were not making presents because they thought it was going to be boring. Santa was so worried that he started crying and the elves were so sad. Then the elves were making presents, but they forgot to put the presents in Santa’s bag so Santa did not know.

Then Santa left, but when he got to a chimney, he did not know the presents were in the bag. Santa was worried and sad because he thought the children were not going to get presents. Then he went to his elves and said, “Why didn’t you put the presents in my bag?” Then the elves started to put the presents in Santa’s bag, so Santa was happy. In the morning, the children were looking for their presents but they couldn’t find them. It was night and Santa went on his sleigh and went to the children’s houses and gave them presents.
My Pet Dog: A Poem

I love my pet dog,
My pet dog has a tail.
He giggles a lot,
And his name is Dale!

What he likes to do,
is jump up on me.
He has big eyes,
that he uses to see.

Another thing he does,
is chasing the cats.
But what he loves most,
is wearing my hats!
The Four Brothers in Space

Once there was a crew there name's where Jesus, Angel, Pedro, and Carlos. They wanted to go to the moon so they could see how it looked. When they all where 15 years old, they went to the commander, and they put me as captain. We blasted off to the moon a day later. They set up the capsule. It took a whole day to unpack.

At night we heard something loud. We all woke up and looked out the window. We saw an alien we all were scared! I never saw an alien on the moon before. A second loud sound made us look outside. We all went outside. Out of nowhere, Pedro got pulled under ground. We tried to pull him up, but we couldn’t. We all ran inside.

The very next day, we tried to find him in the cave. Inside the cave there was a long path. We saw a lot of skeletons of other astronauts. All the aliens got up out of the ground and chased us. They got Carlos. I tried to get him.

Angel yelled, “There is no time we got to go now!”

We got back into the capsule, and we got some apple juice. We tried to calm down by taking deep breaths. At night we saw Pedro and Carlos in the distance. We went out to see them, but they disappeared when we got there.

The other aliens came out from underground. We ran inside the capsule. The aliens tipped it over. Then Angel fell out of the door of the capsule. I slammed the door shut.

I tried to call the commander, but the satellite was down. I had to go fix it from my memory. While I was fixing the satellite, I saw an alien. I hurried to finish fixing it.

“There,” I said.

I called the commander as fast as I could. It took a day for help to come. The aliens all came as I ran into the ship as fast as I could. I made it just on time. When I got to the ship, I saw Pedro, Angel, and Carlos. The aliens had made clones of them and gave me the originals back. I hugged them, and we all got home safely together.

“Yes! I went to a class so, I know how to do it.”

Then they were not being controlled anymore so, we took them home and then got our costume on. We need to lock the door so no one will take them.

Wishing for a Mask

I have a coin in my left hand.
I throw it in the wishing well.
I wish for a mask.
I wait, and wait, and wait, until it is time to go to bed.
My bed is cold, so I put a fire in the chimney.
I look up to the moon.
I look, and look, and look until I fall asleep.
In the morning the fire is out.
My mom came and woke me up and gave me a mask.
Then I said, “thank you mom and wishing well”.
I am so happy!
The end.
Bossses

The guardian is the weakest boss in Minecraft. It has 100 health.

The Wither is kind of op (overpowered). It has 300 health and summons 4 or 5 wither skeletons. The Wither shoots explosive skulls at you and you can die by it...

If you kill the Wither you get a Netherstar, you can use it to craft a beacon.

The Ender dragon is the final boss in Minecraft. It has 500 health and it heals itself by the Ender Crystal. The Ender dragon only spawns 1 time, that means you can only kill it 1 time.

THE LAST BOOK I READ

OoReh, Nai Tway, and PiPat got out of school. They talked about what they were going to do for summer. OoReh said “Guys I’m going home, but before I go home I am going to the library”. OoReh walked to the library. It took a while but he got there. He searched in the library for a long time. After a while he found a book that he wanted to check out. The Librarian told him a warning. She said “that all the people that got that book and read it they would end up dying”. OoReh thought that that was just a hoax. He walked home with the book. After fifteen minutes he got attacked by a bunch of people. They all tried to take the book but OoReh was superfast so he got away. He finally got home. OoReh took a break and sat on the couch. He thought, “I wonder why they were attacking me”. Eventually he forgot about the attack. So OoReh opened the book. When he read the first word he got sucked in. He felt sick because inside the book it was twisting and twirling him. He felt like he wanted to barf. He was in the middle of nowhere in a forest. He looked around for a moment then he found a cave. He wondered what was inside. When he got deeper he found a bear in a cave. When he was stepping out of the cave, he stepped on stick. It cracked and made a sound. Then the bear started opening his eyes. He tried running out but then it heard him. When the bear got up it chased him for a long time. He ran for his life. But he was sweating but he still ran. He was so tired he felt like he was a cloud floating. He didn’t feel the pain of running for a while. Then he took his book out. He looked inside and then it sucked him into the city. When he got there his legs were still tired. So he sat on a bench for a while. He didn’t feel like he belonged in this time period because he felt like he was time traveling back to the past. And then he looked in the book again. He looked through the pages then he found the place where he lived. He wished that he was back home, so it sucked him in. When he got back home blood started coming out of his mouth. All of a sudden his stomach popped and all his insides came out. He was in so much pain. He cried for help but he died anyways. He supposed he died because he came out of the book and he was supposed to stay where the book sucked him in. But he went back home which was not the time period he was supposed to be in. So the time would have to kill him. And that’s the story of the last book I ever read.

Why did the boy throw his clock out of the window?
A: Because he wanted to see time fly!

If a rooster lays an egg on the roof, which side will it fall?

May May’s Big Adventure

May May is a young girl that wanted to play with her family, because she was very bored. May May went to her room, because she didn’t have anyone to play with. Then May May saw a red crayon lying on the colorful furry carpet and she picked it up. Then May May drew a big door on the wall instead of her paper. She opened the door and saw a magical Japan Forest. She drew a red wooden boat. She took the boat to a big shiny castle, then May May saw nice guards that were saying hi, and she waved back. May May fell down from the high waterfall, and quickly made a hot air balloon. May May can see the castle from high up in the sky, where the birds chirp and clouds float around. May May saw a rotten jail where Birdway was captured! May May gets out of the hot air balloon and gets Birdway out of the gold cage. After May May got Birdway out of the cage she got captured! The red crayon was lost and Birdway saw the red crayon, got it and gave it to May May. She made a key to get out of the jail with Birdway. Birdway showed her a way to go home and never go back there again. She opened the door and May May saw a boy named Day Reh, that had a purple crayon. May May and Day Reh made a bike with all the colors they had.
Mystery at the Boys and Girls Club

Once there was a girl named Rosa who loved to go to the Boys and Girls Club. However, every time she went, there was always some things missing.

One day when she showed up at the Boys and Girls Club, there was a sign saying it was cancelled! Everything had gotten stolen, and there was nothing to do. Rosa had to go home. She walked home sad and confused.

When she got home all she could think about was all the fun stuff she and her friends had done there. She decided to try to solve the mystery of who had taken the equipment. As she sat thinking, she suddenly remembered a wild boy who had a big bag. Maybe that bag had the missing items in it. She went to bed, but she didn’t sleep well that night.

When Rosa arrived at school the next morning, she saw the suspect quietly standing in the hallway by his locker. He silently walked toward the trash. She saw him throw the bag in the trash and suspiciously walked away.

Rosa hurried to the trash can. She quickly tore the lid off the can. She was right! It was some of the missing equipment! She hurriedly grabbed the equipment and excitedly ran to tell her teacher. The teacher asked Rosa if she knew who had stolen it. Rosa told her that it was Tim!

The teacher hastily got Tim from the other class. She interrogated Tim and asked why he would do such a thing? He said he didn’t want to go to the Boys and Girls Club, so he figured if he took the equipment, there wouldn’t be anything to do and it would close.

With the equipment returned, the Boys and Girls Club could continue, and Tim’s parents were called. They dealt with him at home, and he was lucky the police weren’t called. Rosa was a brilliant hero!
White men were dressed as Native Americans. They were off to destroy the tea brought from King George III. They were sick of the unfair taxes and wanted their own independence so they threw tea into the harbor to make a statement. Some were caught and some weren’t and so the Revolutionary War began.

The Revolutionary War was a war between Great Britain, under King George III, and American Colonists, led by George Washington. The war lasted from 1775 until 1783 and there were many battles. They fought for America and its people, but most of all for a free country. They wanted to be under God’s eye, not Great Britain’s. Together as Americans we can do so much and that’s how the Colonists won. “It’s the home of the free because of the brave."
