

College of Education – Serving Iowa

In one year,
College of Education faculty and students contributed

$24,494,784

to Iowa's government and non-profit organizations.

This service impact includes student teaching,
student and faculty outreach, grants and contracts,
volunteer hours and professional training.

Highlights of Faculty and Student Impact in:

Clinical Teacher Education programs
= $6,406,269

Student internships and field experiences
= $2,040,521

Faculty volunteer hours and fundraising
(outside of work)
= $410,184

Non-State Funded Grants and Contracts
= $15,472,489

- COE faculty provide an average of 48 days of service a year to local and state organizations.
- UNI students provided 985,802 hours of service in clinical and volunteer settings in 2010.
- UNI graduates 500 new teachers every year.
- More than 2,400 UNI students participate in pre-K through 12 field experiences each year.
- In the past six years COE has secured more than $45 million in federal, state and special contracts and grants.

UNI College of Education—to educate, serve and lead

University of Northern Iowa
Cedar Falls, Iowa
www.uni.edu/coe